Congratulations to the Class of 2016!

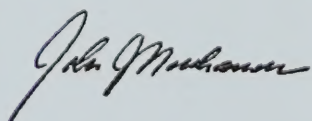

Welcome to a book of memory. My hope is that you return to this volume over the years and recall a time in your life that began with a little anxiety, progressed through the seasons with the inevitable ups and downs of a life growing, and culminated with a wish to do it again.

When you arrived you likely had little idea what lie ahead, but you expected it to be new, and at times challenging. We all worry how we will fit into a new setting so this added to your concerns for there would be new faces everywhere, and a little homesickness at the beginning. Ahead were four winters in the northwest corner of Vermont.

This all went by so quickly didn't it? You saw the world anew through lenses you hardly knew existed, tested yourself in physical and social arenas, developed knowledge in a discipline or two and grew in understanding of your place in this good world. And perhaps at the heart were the people who were with you on this journey. You'll find many of them pictured in these pages, for the most part in ways that don't embarrass! But of course you will have your own memories of your friends. The pictures and words here will only serve as keys to make you smile with fond recollection. And they will grow until you are a Golden Knight. That is why this little volume is so important, it's about the people that touched your mind and heart, your friends, faculty and staff of this College.

Please visit this place beneath a mountain and next to a lake as often as you can. May your life be full and rich of all that is good.

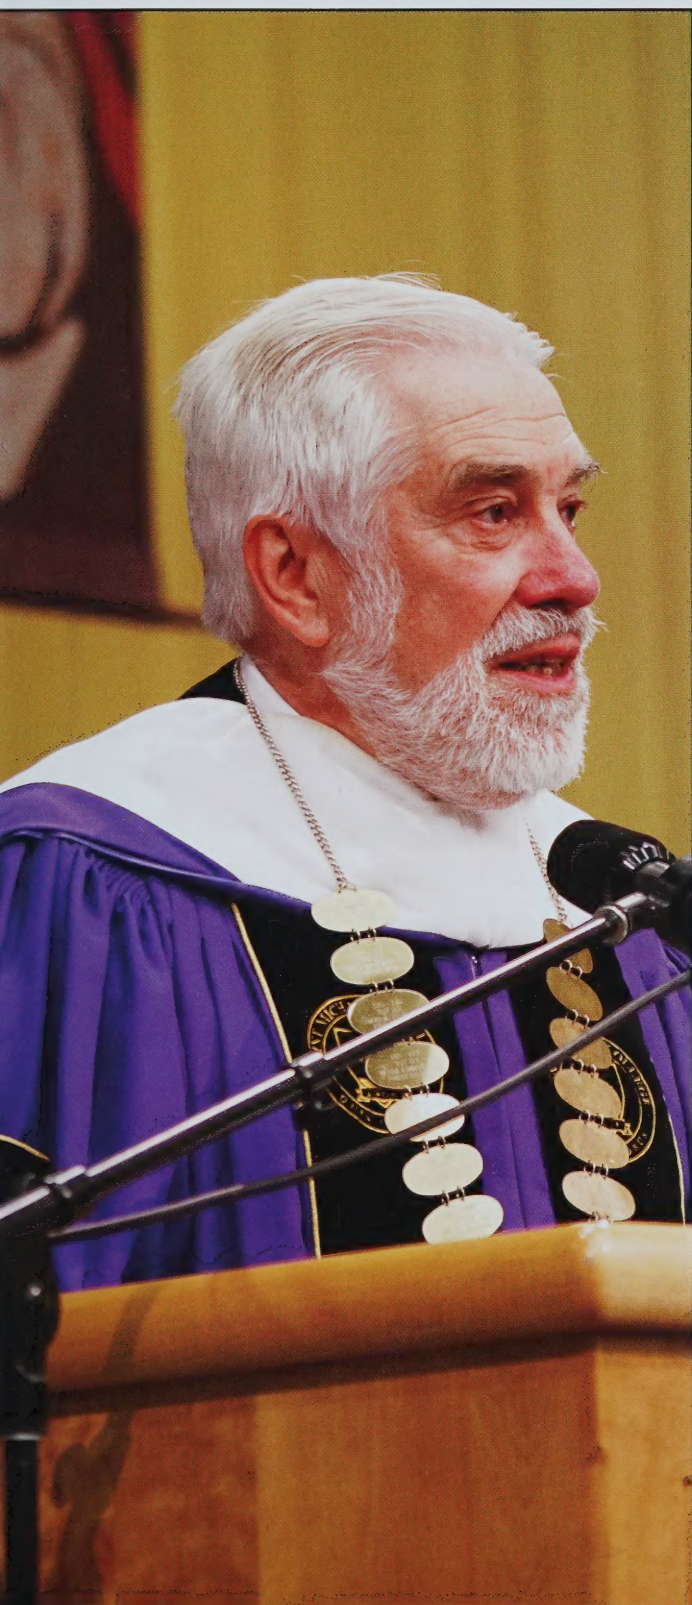

Yours sincerely,

John J. Neuhauser

Dedication

This year's yearbook is dedicated to a staff member who genuinely cares for the well-being of Saint Michael's College students. This individual can often be found going above the call of duty through her empathetic listening and encouraging interactions with all. Since graduating herself from Saint Michael's, she has worked tirelessly as an advocate for the SMC community. The amount of time and effort that this individual takes to support our community, and more specifically the class of 2016, is admirable. Regardless of what her schedule brings, the students are her number one priority as she often takes the time to go beyond a simple hello in the hallways to have genuinely open and caring conversations with any student she comes in contact with. She is a student affairs professional who is immensely committed to the safety, mental health, social well-being and overall success of students. This person often works behind the scenes and in many ways, she has significantly contributed to the overall positive environment and experience that we have all come to enjoy in our last four years. Whether it's training students for the Student Support Network, addressing the issue of sexual assault on college campuses, or advising the Active Minds club members, the health and happiness of her students has been and always will be the driving force behind her work. An invaluable asset to our college who embodies the benevolence and leadership that we have been taught to strive for every day, the Class of 2016 is humbled to present our Yearbook Dedication to Catherine Welch, Assistant Dean of Students. Thank you for the impact that you have had on us as a class and on the entire SMC community.

Congrats
2016!

Micaele Kennedy Heil

Micaele,
You have no idea how much joy and happiness you have brought us since the day you were born. We are so proud of you and are looking forward to watching your future unfold.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Catie, Cliff, Laura
& Eli

Celina (CeCe) Horbat

Dear CeCe,
Congratulations!
You did it.
You never cease to
delight me.
I am so proud of you! Love you.
Mom

Nanny & Poppy
as well as Godparents
Donna & Brian
send you their best wishes & are proud
of you as well.

Caitlyn Corrigan

Congratulations Caitlyn

You have come far since your first day at St.
John's.

We are proud of your accomplishments and know you will do well as a future educator

Mom & Dad

Brody Arthur Jarvis

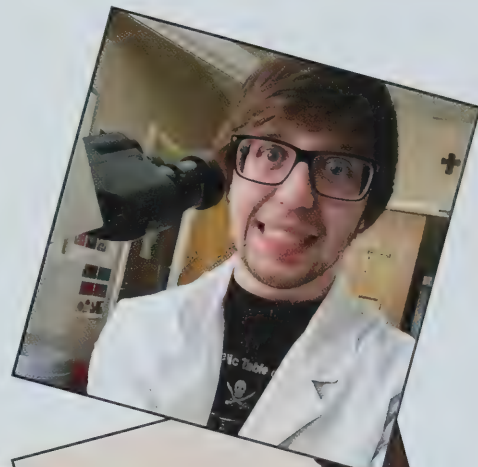

We loved you then, Brody, and we love you now!
We are so proud of everything you have accomplished, and we are looking forward to witnessing every new adventure you

Congratulations Cassie, we are so proud of you!

Lucky stars above you,
Sunshine on your way,
Many friends to love you,
Joy in work and play-
Laughter to outweigh each care,
In your heart a song-
And gladness waiting everywhere
All your whole life long! (Irish Blessing)

Ithaka
As you set out for Ithaka
hope the voyage is a long one,
full of adventure, full of discovery.
Laistrygonians and Cyclops,
angry Poseidon—don't be afraid of them:
you'll never find things like that on your way
as long as you keep your thoughts raised high,
as long as a rare excitement
stirs your spirit and your body.
Laistrygonians and Cyclops,
wild Poseidon—you won't encounter them
unless you bring them along inside your soul,
unless your soul sets them up in front of you.

Hope the voyage is a long one.
May there be many a summer morning when,
with what pleasure, what joy,
you come into harbors seen for the first time;
may you stop at Phoenician trading stations,
to buy fine things,
mother of pearl and coral, amber and ebony,
sensual perfume of every kind—
as many sensual perfumes as you can;
and may you visit many Egyptian cities
to gather stores of knowledge from their scholars.

Keep Ithaka always in your mind.
Arriving there is what you are destined for.
But do not hurry the journey at all.
Better if it lasts for years,
so you are old by the time you reach the island,
wealthy with all you have gained on the way,
not expecting Ithaka to make you rich.

Ithaka gave you the marvelous journey.
Without her you would not have set out.
She has nothing left to give you now.

And if you find her poor, Ithaka won't have fooled you.
Wise as you will have become, so full of experience,
you will have understood by then what these Ithakas mean.
